

Resident House Manager Opportunity

CAIN - Churches Active In Northside's Grace Place seeks an on-site live-in Resident House Manager to monitor its shelter for women and children. In exchange for reduced rent, House Manager insures ongoing cleanliness and upkeep, including weekly trash and recycling, and periodic lawn/ landscaping duties. House manager will report any issues/concerns/emergencies immediately to CAIN Executive Director.

Preference given to candidate who embraces additional responsibility of maintaining internal and external community relationships with guests and service providers, as arranged. For 2017, Grace Place will shelter women and children for the entire summer and 10 additional weeks. Now a ministry of CAIN, Grace Place has offered hospitality in the Catholic Worker tradition for nearly 20 years. Resident manager makes a one year commitment, with 30 day notice option. Requirements: volunteer application, background check, resume, one personal and one professional reference, interview and one month deposit upon acceptance.

Located in College Hill. Near bus line.

“People say, what is the sense of our small effort? They cannot see that we must lay one brick at a time, take one step at a time. A pebble cast into a pond causes ripples that spread in all directions. Each one of our thoughts, words and deeds is like that. No one has a right to sit down and feel hopeless. There is too much work to do.” — Dorothy Day
